

Free Swimming for the over 60's

Free swimming is available at Doncaster's leisure centres including The Dome and Dearne Valley leisure centre.

Welcome in the New Year with a splash at your local leisure centre. From the 2 January 2009, you can swim for free if you're 60 and over and own a 60+ Leisure Card.

Getting a 60+ Leisure Card couldn't be easier, all you need to do is take proof of your age and address to your local Leisure Centre and complete an application form (passport size photo required). You can also download an application form by visiting www.doncaster.gov.uk

Leisure Card's will not be available until the 22nd December but application forms can be completed in advance and cards can be picked up between 22nd and 24th December – so beat the rush and sign up today to access free swimming and discounts on a variety of leisure activities and sports across Doncaster.

As well as free swimming why not take up a free induction in a fitness suite near you with your 60+ Leisure Card.

Leisure centres included in the scheme are Adwick, Armthorpe, Askern, Dearne Valley, The Dome, Edlington, St James, Rossington and Thorne.
